

1 June 2022 | Tikanga-based Māori dispute resolution partnership launched with Tūhono Collective

Utilities Disputes has launched a new partnership with the Tūhono Collective (<https://www.tuhono.nz/>) to provide a tikanga-based Māori dispute resolution framework for resolving disputes using Māori beliefs, principles, values and practices that derive from traditional knowledge (mātauranga Māori).

UDL is committed to delivering a dispute resolution process that meets the needs of all those who seek our help to resolve a complaint. Please contact us to further discuss this and how we can assist you.
